County Resident Said To Have Paid For Federal Job

Observations...

By the Editor

I have been asked by several of my friends in the last few days if the rumors, that I would not make the race for Supervisor were true. This is just one of the many unfounded rumors which make their way around at election time. I announced my candidacy for the office of Supervisor of Beat 5, and I am a candidate, and my name will appear on the ticket, come August 7, God willing. I cannot emphasize this fact more strongly, and I again ask my many friends throughout the beat to continue their splendid efforts in my behalf.

A. G. Favre

Paul Tourne, has moved from his old location at Second and DeMontuzin to his new building, which was recently completed on Highway 90. Paul started from scratch in the automotive parts field, and his attention to business and pleasing personality has made him one of our outstanding young business men. Congratulations and good wishes for continued success to you, Paul.

The High School Bands of Bay High and St. Stanislaus are in Jackson for the state band contest. We may rest assured they will, as in past years, do credit to our city. The results they attain will be published in next week's issue.

The Fish Class races will be held at the Bay Waveland Yacht Club starting this weekend; races will be held Saturday and Sunday. Boat racing enthusiasts will have an opportunity to view some of the better racing of the Gulf Yachting Association at the local club, as some of the members, and the club, own many of the better class boats in the association.

Who is right and who is wrong will be a matter for history to record in the action taken by President Truman, in removing General Douglas MacArthur from his command in the Far East. Opinions are at a variance; and as we see it, the General, the good soldier that he is, should have followed the orders of his Commander-in-Chief, the President of the United States. Regardless of our personal opinion of the individual, Mr. Truman is the President by virtue of his election at the hands of the people of this country, and upon him, rests the great responsibility of coordinating the actions of the State Department and of the Military authorities. As to whether he will measure up to this capacity is a decision which lies in the future, but certainly it is apparent at this time that high military commanders should refrain from expressions which might cause us further entanglements.

Students of St. Joseph Academy and St. Stanislaus College are getting together Thursday night, April 19, at 8 o'clock in the S. J. A. Memorial Hall to provide an evening of pleasant entertainment for the parents and people of Bay St. Louis. From all indications, there will be an abundance of good entertainment and a "variety" of shows. Admission will be 20 and 30 cents.

Prizes and fun are in store for those who attend the Tea-Time Jubilee, sponsored by the S. S. C. Band Auxiliary, Sunday, April 22, at 3:00 p.m. in the St. Joseph Academy gymnasium. Over 50 prizes will be given in audience participation games; and an Emerson radio will be given for the entrance prize. Some of the prizes are now on display in Kern's 5 and 10c Store window. Dennis Tunkel as master of ceremonies will keep the entertainment going. Come on along and attend this benefit; all proceeds will be used to purchase uniforms for the band.

"REA has approved loan of $460,000 to finance construction of 170 miles distribution lines to serve 540 new rural consumers, for system improvements, and for construction of 15 miles new line," Senator John C. Stennis stated in a recent telegram to Dr. C. W. Fountain, president of the Coast Electric Power Association.

APPROVED ON PLANS

In a recent interview, Dr. Fountain stated that he would like to point out that this money is not being immediately borrowed by Coast Electric; but this loan has been approved on the basis of submitted plans justifying the need for additional capital to finance additional line construction.

Continuing, Dr. Fountain said that the loan funds would be advanced in partial payments and on approved final plans.

PLANNED CONSTRUCTION

Planned construction will include the "Heavyup" of present lines to enable the greatly increased usage of electricity to be adequately handled; the construction of lines to serve an additional 25 to 30 new members each month, and the construction of a tie line to allow the recently constructed 1000 KW substation near Bay St. Louis to be fully utilized.

TO BE PAID IN FULL

Dr. Fountain added that all funds advanced are required to be paid in full with 2% interest, payable over a period of 35 years; and that to date, $1,577,821 had been advanced to Coast Electric to construct electric distribution facilities in Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River Counties. He stated that Coast Electric now operates approximately 1500 miles of line, all in the rural areas, and serves over 5000 rural consumers; also that Coast Electric has made all repayments on the long term debt as they have come due.

Ed P. Ortte Seeks Position On Board

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of Ed P. Ortte for Supervisor, Beat 5, Hancock County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election to be held August 7, 1951.

To The Voters Of Beat 5, Hancock County

I wish to make a statement clarifying the rumors with reference to my candidacy for re-election as Member of the Board of Supervisors Beat 5.

Due to my recent illness it was questionable whether or not I would run for re-election, however this ailment has been improving steadily and I see no reason why it will interfere with my seeking re-election.

So I wish to make the definite statement that I am a candidate for re-election for Supervisor Beat Five. I am running strictly on my past record, but at a later date I will make a more thorough statement, as to why I am so desirous of serving another term as a Member of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors.

At this time, I wish to thank the Citizens of this District for having made it possible for me to have served you for the past eleven years, and trust you will see fit to support me in the August Primary, sufficiently, that I may be elected to serve another term.

I remain
Respectfully yours,
ED. P. ORTTE

Plan Recital

You are cordially invited to attend a piano recital by the pupils of Mrs. Marie Weber Bor-dages to be held Saturday, April 21, 1951 at 8:00 p.m., St. Joseph's auditorium.

Some interesting testimony was given to the committee Tuesday, when Roy F. Brasher, real estate operator of Brookhaven, Mississippi, was on the stand. It was shown that 14 federal jobs as County price control directors were sold for $5100.00. The counties involved were Perry, Wayne, George, Harrison, Lamar, Pearl River, Greene, Stone, Hancock, Wilkinson, Amite, Pike, Lawrence and Marion.

HARRIEL PAYS $400

The testimony showed that Thomas Harriel of Hancock County is supposed to have paid Broker $400.00 for the promise of an appointment as Chairman of the Office of Price Stabilization if it was set up on a county level, at a salary of $4800.00, with the authority to name the 12 employees necessary in the local office. Senator Mundt said a conflict in testimony about what the jobs were paid for would be an "interesting case of perjury" for the department of justice.

The job-sale investigation carried on night sessions in order to conclude the work. Clarence Hood, National Democratic Committee member, who was recognized by the National Committee instead of J. B. Snider, regularly named Committee member from Mississippi, was on the witness stand Wednesday morning, and denied any knowledge of job sale. He said that from here out he was an ex-politician.

A number of witnesses have testified before the committee stating that they had paid for appointments in the postal department.

Miss B. L. Mitchell To Conduct Class

Miss Betty Lee Mitchell, beginning the week of April 15, will conduct classes in directing, acting and public speaking for anyone interested. The courses will include two classes weekly for the duration of eight weeks.

Miss Mitchell, a member of the Pasadena Community Playhouse Association, attended Gulf Park college. Upon completion of her course there, she studied at the Pasadena Playhouse, Pasadena, California and worked with the State Theatre of California in Pasadena. She is a member of the American Federation of Radio Artists and the American Guild of Variety Artists. In New York, Miss Mitchell did radio work, summer stock and took part in Olsen and Johnson's first company of "Hellzapoppin'." She returned to Bay St. Louis two years ago, and is residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell.

This talented native became active in the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre where she participated in several plays and directed the recent hit, "Born Yesterday." She was an assistant director for a recent play at the New Orleans Little Theatre.

The texts, to be used as references in the course, are written by the foremost authorities in the entertainment world; and Miss Mitchell was fortunate in having studied with these authors during her attendance at school in California.

Miss Mitchell will conduct the classes at her home, 124 Ulman avenue for the present. Enrollment, in either the adult or children's classes, may be secured by phoning 238 or by writing Miss Mitchell.

SHALL IT BE CONDONED

Mississippi has had a wide variety of political scandals throughout the years, but none will equal the nefarious scheme of the pro-Truman Democrats in the collection of money for job in the postal service, and the promise of jobs as county chairmen in the price stabilizations set up.

It was brought out at the hearing now being held at Jackson, by a senatorial investigating committee, that one man alone collected $5100.00 on the promise of 14 fictitious jobs under the office of price stabilization, if it was put on the county level. The promises were made upon the payment of $300.00 or $400.00, and the payee was to be named county Chairman, at a salary of $4800.00, in his county, and have the right to name some 12 local employees.

And of course Hancock County was on the suckers list, and the solicitor, a Brookhaven real estate man, did not come to the urban section of the county to locate his victim, but travelled to the extreme north east section of the county, in the Sellers Community, to seek his prey. There, so the testimony shows, Thomas Harriel, paid $400.00, just $100.00, more than the average county, for a supposed job, which by the longest stretch of imagination would never be created.

The whole thing stinks and the ones victimized of course do not deserve any sympathy, nevertheless promises from those in political power are oft times appealing to the average person, particularly when the silver lining in the cloud is painted in sparkling beauty. This is what will eventually destroy our government.

As we look back and see what has happened in our own state, we cannot but think that the same is prevalent throughout the country. Senator Fulbright of Arkansas, who is on the committee investigating the affairs of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the lending agency of the government, made a speech in the Senate in which he said that "Morality has become Legality" and we wish to quote excerpts from his speech as published in Time Magazine of April 9.

"Who is more at fault, the bribed or the bribers? The bribed have been false to their oaths and betrayers of their trust. But they are often relatively simple men (who) weaken before the temptations held out to them by the unscrupulous. Who are the bribers? They are often men who walk the earth, lordly and secure, members of good families, respected figures. Is it too much to ask of them that they behave with simple honesty—with that honesty which looks, not to the letter of the law, but to its spirit?"

"One of the most disturbing aspects of this problem of moral conduct is the revelation that among so many influential people morality has become identical with legality. We are certainly in a tragic plight if the accepted standard by which we measure the integrity of a man in public life is that he keep within the letter of the law."

It is to be hoped this matter will not die with the conclusion of the investigation at Jackson, but that further investigations will be conducted throughout the country, and that the full findings of the committee will be turned over to the Department of Justice, with the hope that in time our country will be rid of such putrid human beings. And as Senator Fulbright, said further: "It is bad enough for us to have corruption in our midst, but it is worse if it is to be condoned."

Local Grocery Robbed April 7

Officers are investigating a safe-cracking at Kalif and Owen Grocery Store, Henderson avenue, Saturday night.

First reports were that $2,000 and a quantity of jewelry were taken, but City Marshall Herman Finhold stated that the burglars overlooked quite a sum of money which was filed in folder along with deeds and other papers.

Cash amounting to $125.00, proceeds of the womanless wedding put on by the parent teachers Association, was in the loot taken by the safe crackers.

The robbery was discovered Sunday morning by Mrs. William Kalif. Entry to the building was gained by removing the bottom panel from the west side door of the store and punching the door bars from their places, according to the city officials.

The knob of the safe was hammered off and the combination punched out.

Finhold stated that the burglars must have had a lookout posted at the north door to the grocery as the wooden door was opened but the screen was latched from the inside.

No burglar tools were found on the scene but some of the tools from the store's meat market were beside the battered safe.

The marshal stated that burglary insurance was carried on the store.

Words Without Puzzles

Patience, confidence, faith and hope are no puzzle to people in the oil business. It takes all these qualities to carry on year after year in the sound development of a state's oil and gas resources.

Gulf has had over $75 million worth of faith and confidence in Mississippi as an oil producing state. That is the money Gulf has spent in Mississippi for exploration, drilling, development of properties, lease rentals, taxes and other expenses in connection with its producing and pipe line operations. This includes the drilling of 453 wells of which 80 were wildcats. A total of 270 oil producers, 57 gas wells and 126 dry holes go to make up the total.

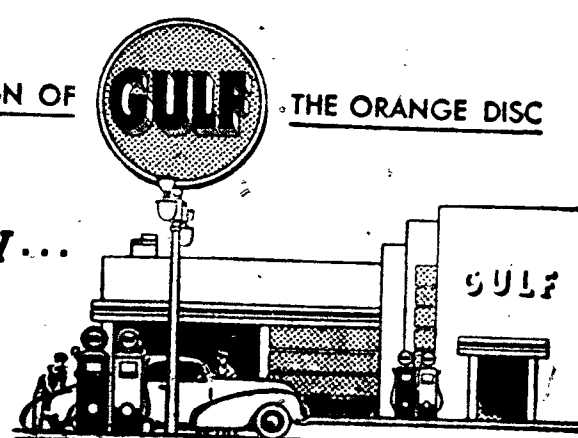

It takes faith, confidence and risk money to develop mineral resources of a state, and Gulf has pioneered in this vital work since it purchased its first lease in Hinds County back in 1917—34 years ago. At the end of 1950 Gulf's revenue from production in Mississippi was still $17½ million less than Gulf's expenditures in the state.

Gulf's expenditure of $75 million not only reflects Gulf's confidence in Mississippi but is positive evidence of Gulf's contribution to the economic progress of the state through the sound development of its mineral resources.

And Gulf's confidence in Mississippi is even stronger now than it was back in 1917 as Gulf joins with all forward-looking Mississippians in the building of a more prosperous Mississippi, so that every citizen may enjoy even greater individual advantages and opportunities.

P. M. A. Urges Farmers To Survey Operations For Increase In Cotton

Every farmer in Hancock county is urged to take a careful look at his farming operations to see if he can grow more cotton and still maintain soil conservation measures. Every farmer who can should do so, because he is helping supply a vitally needed defense commodity," says Fitzhugh Lee, chairman of the Hancock County Agricultural Mobilization Committee. More cotton is needed for our National defense and the cotton farmer is the only one who can supply it.

Cotton was a most important raw material in helping win World War II and today cotton is second only to steel in essential national defense raw materials. Much depends on the 1951 crop of cotton. Nearly all of a 16 million bale crop in 1951 will be needed next year to supply vital needs for the staple and to help build a reserve supply.

The expected carry-over August 1, 1951, will possibly be the smallest for 23 years.

The cotton acreage for Hancock County in 1950 was 30.2 acres. This must be increased by 20 acres if Hancock County is to meet its 1951 goal. The 1949 acreage was 44 acres.

Mr. Lee pointed out that our present supply of cotton, carry-over last August, plus the 1950 crop, plus a little imported cotton, is 16.8 million bales. Demands for this cotton are estimated to be at least 15.8 million bales—10 million bales for U. S. mills and 5.8 million bales for foreign customers. The seed for cotton beginning August 1, 1951 is expected to be even larger as defense programs here and in friendly foreign countries expand, Mr. Lee added.

Mr. Lee added that the cotton crop in 1951 is expected to be even larger as defense programs here and in friendly foreign countries expand, Mr. Lee added.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

ENROLL IN CHICK PROGRAM

By HOWARD SIMMONS

Enroll now in the "Grow Healthy Chicks" program. You will receive a chick mortality card that will furnish a handy record for showing the number of chickens lost due to any cause.

All who enroll in the program will get a weekly news letter for 10 weeks concerning management practices for that week.

SOME TIMELY TIPS

Buy quality chicks. Insist on U. S. Approved, U. S. Clean, or Fullerton Passed chicks. Buy your chicks close to home. Shipping weakens chicks and they may become diseased while in shipment. Come by this office for your copy of "The 1951 Mississippi Chick Buyers Guide."

PROVIDE ADEQUATE HOUSING

Allow at least three-fourths square foot floor space for pullets being grown out for the laying house; and at least one square foot each for chicks being grown out as broilers. Have your brooder ready for the chicks. Have the feeders and waterers ready and in place and have the brooder stove going and the temperature adjusted three days before the chicks arrive.

Keep the mortality card handy; check it each day, and at the end of the 10 week brooding period, complete the card and return it to this office.

PASTURES RATE HIGH IN FEED PER ACRE

The cost per unit of production for pastures is lower than for corn or oats. One hundred pounds of digestible nutrients from pastures costs less than a third of corn for grain; a third of corn for silage; and about a fourth of oats for grain.

The cost of producing pastures is not up as much as the sale price of animals from pastures. While there is no one area that will give grazing all the year, by planning and planting different areas to give grazing in the different seasons you can have grazing 12 months of the year.

Make plans now to harvest seed from every area not needed for grazing and remember, pastures are a 5-way crop and they furnish grazing, grain, hay, silage and seed.

FARM SAFETY

The safety and usefulness of a farm workshop depends on the condition and arrangement of the shop and its equipment. With the rush of planting season just around the corner, farmers should direct attention to the need for cleaning and rearranging their workshops.

The life of farm machinery can be extended by timely repairs. A well lighted workshop makes repairs easier, safer and more efficient. Proper arrangement of tools and equipment makes for fewer accidents and less lost time.

SOME SUGGESTIONS

Reserve the side of the shop with large doors for repairing large equipment. Make sure that work areas are well lighted. Do not use or store inflammable liquids in the workshop. Have a definite storage place for tools and equipment and keep everything in its place. Keep the floor clean of tripping and other accident hazards. Paint the inside of the building a light color or whitewash it to improve visibility.

Dan R. Hudson

To Speak At M E C

Dan R. Hudson, special consultant to the director, Office of Small Business, National Production Authority, will speak at the morning session of the 2nd annual meeting of the Mississippi Economic Council in Jackson on April 24, Thad Fowler of Hattiesburg, chairman of the program committee, reports.

Mr. Hudson will speak on "The Role of Small Business in Defense." He was a former resident of Birmingham, Alabama, before being assigned to the procurement division of the Office of Small Business. He is charged with responsibility of seeing that small business enterprises, insofar as practicable, are fully utilized in filling military and civilian defense program needs.

Under his direction, a field force contacts prime and secondary contractors to help small businesses receive every possible consideration as suppliers and sub-contractors.

Mr. Hudson's acceptance of an invitation to address the annual meeting completes the guest-speaker list for the day. Mr. Fowler stated. His talk will be given at the opening of the morning session, which begins at 10 a.m. Committee reports will round out the morning's program.

Raymond Moley, an editor of Newsweek and widely known as an authority in the political and economic field, will be the featured speaker at the luncheon session. Reservations are necessary for Mr. Moley's address, while no reservations are necessary for the morning program.

Mr. Fowler stated that both members and non-members of the MEC are invited to attend the day's program.

HOME AGENT NOTES
By MISS MADGE ALLRED

"I don't know of any one thing that will help the homemaker get more for the money she spends than by taking time enough to read and evaluate consumer labels." The Extension consumer education specialist made this statement.

Isn't it one that appeals to all you homemakers who are coping with a budget during these days of high prices?

Just reading the label isn't enough, however. The buyer must be able to interpret what she has read. If the labels are adequate, she must follow the instructions given for the use and care of the article.

For instance, if Mrs. Home-maker is buying sheets, she will find a good sheet label tells her what the sheet is made of. It might be made of cotton, linen, Ramie, Nylon or other fabrics. The label also gives the size of the sheet; thread count; amount of finishing material used, if any; the percent of shrinkage to expect; breaking strength and brand name.

The labels on products fall into three different types—mandatory, grade and informative.

Mandatory labels are those required by law. We have two Federal Mandatory laws on labeling. One is the Wool Products Labeling Act passed by Congress in 1939. The other is the Food and Drug Act passed by Congress in 1906 and revised in 1938 to include cosmetics.

This law is now known as the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act.

The wool Products Labeling Law makes mandatory the labeling of fabrics (yard goods) or apparel made of wool. The label must show the percentage of total fiber weight of virgin wool or reprocessed wool or reused wool, and of other fibers present and of non-fiberous loading, filling or adulterating matter.

In other words, if you want to buy all wool material, the label may help you do so.

"The label may help you, we say, because Federal laws apply only to interstate trade. In Mississippi we are protected because about all of our woolen materials are shipped from other states. If the materials are produced within a state in which it's sold, it may not be labeled.

The Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act has been called "The law that keeps us alive." It is designed primarily to promote purity and truthful labeling in food is strict and provides criminal penalties for misleading or untruthful labeling.

All food labels must carry: (1) the name of the product, (2) the net contents. And, (3) The name and address of the canner or distributor.

In addition to this information, if a standard of identity has been set up for a particular food, then certain specifications as to label statements must be used in describing the product.

Canned peaches are a product requiring this kind of labeling. The following facts must be stated on the label separately, one after the other: Variety (cling, stone or freestone). Color (yellow or white). Style of pack (whole, halves, slices, etc., and if halves and whole peaches are unpeeled, that must be stated). Degree of syrup in which the peaches are packed (heavy, me-

Four Men Serve
Internship Under
Aid Of Med. Loan

Vicksburg, Mississippi — Mississippi men are now interning in Mississippi. Four young physicians will begin internship at Mercy Hospital in Vicksburg in July, 1951. All four are State medical education loan recipients. They are: William L. Carr, Jr., of Laurel; Harry C. Frye, Jr., of Jackson; Lamar Puryear, Jr., of Raymond; Luther D. Turner, of Richton.

Mr. Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Carr, Sr., of Laurel and native of that city, attended Laurel High School, Jones County Jr. College and University of Mississippi. After completing two years of medical studies at the University of Mississippi School of Medicine he enrolled at Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where he will receive the Doctor of Medicine degree this spring. Mr. Carr is a married veteran, husband of Mrs. Gertrude Kelly Carr.

Mr. Frye and Mr. Puryear are to receive their Doctor of Medicine degrees this June at Tulane University School of Medicine. Mr. Frye is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Frye, Sr., of Jackson and is a graduate of Central High School, Jackson. He attended Millsaps College. His Bachelor of Arts degree was conferred in 1947 by Mississippi College. He is a married veteran, husband of Mrs. Helen McGeehe Frye.

The Fryes have two children. Mr. Puryear, native of Raymond, dium or light, etc.).

Wise shoppers read all of this information on a can of peaches. How are they to know if their peaches are packed in water instead of syrup, if they don't read the label?

Reading labels will help you. Mrs. Homemaker, protect your table and your pocketbook.

Local 4-H Leaders Urged to Take Part In State Program

Junior Leaders of 4-H Clubs in Hancock County were urged today by R. O. Monosmith, state 4-H Club Leader, to take part in the 1951 statewide 4-H Junior Leadership program and contest. This special 4-H club competition for expense-paid trips to regional, state and national events is being sponsored for the fourth successive year by United Gas in cooperation with the Mississippi State Extension Service, Monosmith announced.

A total of 334 trips will be awarded to county and state winners. One boy and one girl from each county will be awarded a trip to Training Conferences to be held at the University of Mississippi, Oxford, and Copiah-Lincoln Junior College at Wesson. Two winners from each county will also be awarded a trip to the State 4-H Club Congress at Mississippi State College.

In addition, four winners from the state-at-large will be awarded trips to the National 4-H Club Camp at Washington, D. C. and one boy and one girl will be selected to represent Mississippi Junior Leaders at the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

The best 4-H county council in each of the five Extension districts will receive cash awards of $50 for library fund, recreational equipment or other needs.

Winners in each category will be selected by the staff of the state Extension Service on the basis of their leadership records. Full details of the program and contests are available from the county and home demonstration agents at the office of the county agricultural extension service.

In announcing the 1951 program, Monosmith said: "This fine support being given the farm youth program of Mississippi by United Gas is of tremendous value in providing added incentive to 4-H boys and girls in their wide range of individual and club projects. It helps to bring about greater achievement in 4-H work and offers a practical way for junior leader to demonstrate the ways in which they are contributing to the betterment of their club and community."

BIRDSONG CITES LIVESTOCK LAW

Col. T. B. Birdsong, Commissioner of Public Safety and Head of the Livestock Investigation Bureau of Mississippi, called upon all livestock auction barns and dealers in livestock to cooperate with his Department and all law enforcement officers in helping to prevent cattle raising by listing the description of cattle and other livestock brought to them and sold or offered for sale.

Mississippi statutes require all dealers in livestock to take and keep a register of such description, also the name and address of buyer and seller.

Says Birdsong further, "This is being sadly neglected by a number of dealers and as a result it is very difficult to trace the sale of stolen livestock."

"Large numbers of cattle are being sold under fictitious names and addresses through the livestock auctions in Mississippi. This can be remedied somewhat by obtaining the make and license number of cattle trucks coming under suspicion, as license can be to verify owner or seller's name. A large number of stolen cattle are being carried to auction barns, unloaded and sold before the sale starts; in that manner, the thief will be miles away when the cattle are resold through the ring. With the present high prices of livestock and increasing number of cattle being raised, cattle rustling is going to be one of the major problems confronting Mississippi cattlemen. Our Cattle Investigators, all Highway Patrolmen, along with local officers are doing our best to apprehend all violators, and we insist and must have the cooperation of all dealers." Any dealer

United Gas Lines Award Contracts

United Gas Pipe Line Company has awarded a $25,000,000 contract to Gulf Southern Contractors of Ft. Worth, it was announced Wednesday, for construction work on approximately 11,000 miles of natural gas pipe lines.

All of the construction work will be within the states of Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, according to M. A. Abernathy, United Gas Vice President.

Gulf Southern is a contracting group composed of Texas-Louisiana Contractors of Ft. Worth; Oklahoma Contracting Company, Dallas; J. Ray McDermott & Co., Inc., New Orleans; and Morrison-Knudson Co., Inc., Boise, Idaho. Robert Thomas of Ft. Worth heads up the contracting group.

Award of pipe line construction work to Gulf Southern Contractors follows the letting of a contract recently to Brown & Root, Inc. of Houston, covering various phases of engineering, construction and other services on the project.

The construction project was authorized under a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by the Federal Power Commission to United Gas late in February. When completed the new facilities will provide an initial increase in the capacity of the pipe line system of approximately 920 million cubic feet of natural gas daily. Cost of the entire project is estimated to be in excess of $111,000,000.

In addition to the new lines in Louisiana, Texas and Mississippi, the construction program also provides for a 20-inch line extending approximately 15 miles into the Gulf of Mexico from the Louisiana coast. This line will tie in new reserves to United's system from the Eugene Island area. Construction at an early date of additional lines to connect with other wells in the same general area is also contemplated.

not familiar with this law is urged to contact Col. T. B. Birdsong, Commissioner of Public Safety for all information.

J. P. Coleman Is A Candidate for Attorney General

Judge J. P. Coleman, of Ackerman, who on October 23 was appointed by Governor Fielding L. Wright to serve an unexpired term as Attorney General, today released his formal announcement as a candidate for the full term beginning January, 1952.

By election, Judge Coleman has previously served two terms as District Attorney and 1 term as Circuit Judge of the Fifth Circuit Court District. Also by appointment of Governor Wright, he was Commissioner of Supreme Court from September 1st to October 23rd, resigning that position to become Attorney General. He is the first Attorney General in the history of the State to bring to that office previous experience as District Attorney, as Circuit Judge, and with the Supreme Court. Before his elevation to the Bench, he engaged in extensive law practice in the Ackerman territory.

In 1949, he was recommended by Senator John C. Stennis for appointment as United States Attorney for North Mississippi, but President Truman failed to act on the recommendation and the appointment was never sent to the Senate.

Very active in the duties of the Attorney General's Office since his appointment, Judge Coleman personally handled the Willie McGee case before the Supreme Court of the United States, resulting in that Court declining to interfere with the previous judgments of Mississippi Courts. He personally briefed and argued the case of Houston Roberts, convicted of the poison murder of his granddaughter in Hinds County, resulting in the death penalty being affirmed by the Supreme Court of Mississippi. This was the first time in many years in which the State Attorney personally briefed or argued a case before the Supreme Court.

Judge Coleman has issued the following statement:

"I very much appreciate the honor of serving the people of Mississippi as their Attorney General. In this capacity I am general counsel for the state government in all of its legal affairs. I represent the State in all appeals from criminal convictions, in all civil matters in which the State is a proper party, and we are required by law to advise all state and county officers. I am blessed with the cooperation of a group of trained, loyal Assistants. Our ambition is to make this one of the outstanding offices of its kind in the Nation. If elected to a full term, I promise the people of Mississippi to discharge my future duties and obligations with the same energy and devotion which I have always tried to bring to my official duties in whatever capacity. The great ambition of my life is to earn and deserve the confidence of the people, wherever it may be my lot to serve. I shall appreciate their support in the August primaries."

Born and reared on the farm, the Attorney General owns and operates a farm in Choctaw County, and also publishes the Choctaw Plaindealer, weekly newspaper at Ackerman.

A PLAN FOR TOMORROW

Our future, and that of our children, is best assured when we work to an intelligently prepared plan. Whether it is personal security for later years or the perpetuation of our natural resources, such a plan is essential.

The American forest products industries, which convert our forest resource to the thousands of essentials made from wood, endorse and support a plan designed to provide our children and our children's children with the same abundance of trees we have enjoyed. It is based on the reproductive capacity of our forests. Because trees grow, forests can replace themselves, trees can be raised as successive crops. The forest industries believe we can always have an adequate supply of wood.

Supported and aided by industry, "tree farming", the growing of trees as cash crops, is now active in more than half of our major forested states. It teaches good forest practices. It encourages protection and conservation of our woodlands for our use. It seeks to pass on our heritage of productive forests to future generations.

Blanks For E T S Tests Are Ready

Colonel J. W. Patton, Jr., Director of Selective Service for Mississippi, said today that application blanks for the ETS tests to be given college students in May and June will be available at Local Boards. The test scores or scholastic standing in college or university, will be used by local boards in determining the eligibility of registrants to be considered for occupational deferment as students.

The application blanks, Colonel Patton said, will be available at the local boards.

Colonel Patton suggested that Friday night, Mrs. Wilson accompanied her home Sunday.

Elroy Warren spent the night in Gulfport Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gipson of Picayune spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller.

Mrs. Elvin Davis of Salem community spent Sunday with Mrs. Clifton Fore in the home of Mrs. C. R. Penton.

registrants concerned please delay asking for details about the tests until information Bulletin soon to be issued is received by Local Boards. This information bulletin will answer all questions that a registrant contemplating taking the test might ask. The poster giving general information and the Bulletin of Information giving specific details and sample of the test, will be available at local boards and also at the colleges and universities throughout the State, as well as at community centers. However, the State Director repeated that the Application Blanks can be obtained ONLY FROM THE LOCAL BOARD.

The new plan was announced by the President and Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service, last week. Student deferments will be based upon either capacity to learn as demonstrated by the results of a nationwide test, or upon scholastic performance as evidenced by class standing. These two criteria are variable to either increase or diminish the number of students in training, as the national interest may require.

"The tests will be given on May 26, June 16 and June 30 (1951), to college seniors and others contemplating entrance into graduate or professional schools, and to other students who have already begun and who plan to continue, their college studies," Colonel Patton said.

"High school seniors and other prospective college entrants will not be permitted to take the test until after they have commenced their first year of college work."

To be eligible to take the Selective Service College Qualification Test, an applicant:

1. Must be a registrant who intends to request occupational deferment as a student;

2. Must be under 26 years old at the time of taking the test;

3. Must have already begun and plan to continue his college or university studies (the applicant need not be in a four year college but his entire course must be satisfactory for transfer of credits to a degree granting institution);

4. Must not previously have taken the test.

The tests, to be administered by the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey, will be given at approximately 1,000 examination centers throughout the United States and its Territories. The registrant will be required to pay only for his own transportation costs to and from the testing center.

Blue Wins This "Blue"
Copy Miller's soon dogs—except for one of them, Old Blue are about the finest hounds in the county. Blue's too friendly and easy-going to care much about hunting. He doesn't act the way we think a good dog should, so we figured he'd never amount to much.
But a fellow comes around Saturday looking for a good dog to photograph for some advertising. And the dog he picks is Blue! Says Blue's happy, friendly face is just the one to attract people's attention. So Copy gets more money for that picture than his other dogs will ever take in hunt prizes.
From where I sit, that's all I teach us not to look down on humans, when they act differently than we think they should. For instance, maybe you think tea goes best with food. O.K.—but don't side up wrong the man who enjoys a bottle of beer at mealtime.
Like Blue, I guess we're all "different" in one way or another—but that doesn't mean we don't have our good points, too!

ROCKS BLOW CAME TO MCGILL

The Rockchaws blew up in the seventh inning last Sunday to give McGill of Mobile a 6 to 2 edge at Morreale Park.

Don Luc knocked one of the longest hits seen at the park in many a day and would have had a homer easily, but forgot to touch third base as he rounded for home. This decision caused some bit of discussion as to whether Luc should have been called out because of the change of balls at that particular time.

Huvar ran up his strike out record to 17 for the two games pitched. He is given credit for the loss, while Manders of the Yellow Jackets took over the victory.

McGill bunched hits in the first inning to score two runs, and in the seventh Laverne singled, scored on Dickinson's double. The latter scored on Ladner's fielder's choice to end the scoring for the visitors.

Batteries: Huvar, Burns and Heitzmann; Manders and Dickerson.
